by our distinguished participants. Last year's attendees elevated the significance of the need for a deeper representational dialogue between men and women.

This year our distinguished Honorees and Participants will have the opportunity to have private meetings, tailored specifically to their individual needs with Greek Government Officials, CEO's of national and multinational companies and others high profile-organizations.. The end goal of this unique experience is the development of solid alliances and new prospects will develop between the USA, Greece and Europe, Mexico and China.

On Tuesday, July 6th 2010, Athens will welcome our guest in the Intercontinental Hotel, which represents the essence of hospitality in Greece. In a unique central location in the Greek capital, it is a luxurious and prestigious hotel that incorporates fine dining, and high standards of living. Our usual Press Conference will be given at the Foreign Press Association of Greece and then we will visit the Acropolis and the new Acropolis Museum.

On Wednesday, July 7th 2010, we will visit the Greek Parliament and then the President of Democracy. Also, we will visit the Mayor's Office to the Honorable Mayor of Athens, Nikitas Kaklamanis, to individuals with world wide acclaimed. Late in the afternoon you are invited to join EAWC's "Goddess Artemis Awards" Ceremony in Athens at the renowned Zappeion Megaron. Concerts and performances will follow.

On Thursday, July 8th, 2010, we will have our opening ceremony of our forum in Zappeion Megaron. After the closing ceremony of our forum a fashion show for women with Breast Cancer and a book presentation will follow and we will continue our great tour with visit to Sounion in the Ancient Temple of Poseidon.

On Friday, July 9th 2010, guests will have the chance to visit the Achaia Clauss Winery in Patra , Ancient Olympia which the first Olympic flame born and then explore the Historic museum of the Olympic Games in Ancient Olympia.

On Saturday, July 10th 2010, upon arrival we will be welcomed by the Mayor of Ancient Olympia, Mr. George Aidonis with a reception. Then we will visit the Ancient Olympia Archaeological Site and museum as well. The entire archaeological site of Olympia won't make you stare in awe and marvel at the ancient architecture however it is a beautiful place to visit and unlike most archaeological sites in Greece which are exposed to the sun and surrounded by vegetation that barely reaches your ankles. Finishing our tour from Ancient Olympia we will visit a traditional village called Zacharo and we will guide in Artemida area. We will have plenty of time to explore the village and dinning with the Mayor of Zacharo, Mr. Pandazis Chronopoulos. Late in the afternoon we will return to Ancient Olympia. A

On Sunday, July 11th 2010, our journey will continue to the magnificent cosmopolitan island of Mykonos, an island of millionaires with yacht filled ports and a prestigious resort on a par with St. Barts, Possitano and St. Tropez. Expect to be pampered at the celebrity filled Royal Myconian Thalasso Spa Resort.
