

JIM LUCE - TEN MOST PROMINENT MOMENTS OF MY LIFE

1. Acceptance to Waseda University, Tokyo when I was in college (1980).
2. Accepting my first job on Wall Street as an Assistant Euro-Bond Portfolio Manager with Daiwa Bank – in Japanese (1983).
3. Asked by Laurence Rockefeller and Henry Luce III to run for U.S. Senate in Republican Primary (1992).
4. Adoption of my Chinese-Indonesian son, Mathew James Luce (1995).
5. Founding of Orphans International Worldwide (OIWW) which I conceptualized with my mother, and began with my portion of her estate (1999).
6. Organizing a response for children orphaned by the Tsunami in Indonesia and Sri Lanka (2005).
7. Gaining Associative Status for OIWW at the United Nations (2007).
8. Writing my first story for the New York Times and Huffington Post (2007).
9. Founding the James Jay Dudley Luce Foundation (2009).
10. The Creation of the Jim Luce Stewardship Report (2010).