

Curriculum Vitae

Vicky Pantazi was born in Preveza, Greece. She attended the George Stavros High School at Ioannina, and later receives her degree from the University of Athens as a student of Political and Financial Studies.

Fine art, painting, decorating, piano and the violin occupy most of her time. She studied painting at the studio of the famous painter George Kouzounis, also distinguished creator of the large poster.

She attended classical painting at the studio of the professor Sophos, who lived and worked in Italy specializing in ceiling and wall painting of palaces.

She is a member:

Transbulkan Relations Institute

European Company of Scientists – Literature and Artists

Greek Company of Word and Art

From 1988 to 2008 she hosted 2 personal exhibitions of her art, and participated in many group exhibitions with other colleagues.

- 1998 – 1st personal exhibition in Cultural Center “Parnassos”.
- 2003 – 2nd personal exhibition at the Art Gallery, which later was hosted in America.

From 1995 to 2008 she attended many group exhibitions:

- 1995 – Melas Mansion of the National Bank of Greece
- 1996 – Bankers Trade Union exhibitions all over Greece
- 1999 – Cultural Center “Melina Merkouris”
- 1999 – European Union of Scientific Artists
- 1999 – Cultural Center of the University of Athens
- 2000 - Cultural Center “Thanos Tragas”
- 2000 - Cultural Center of the Municipality of Athens
- 2000 - Cultural Center of the Municipality of Athens with other distinguished artists, where her work obtained the first prize
- 2003 - Bankers Trade Union at the Cultural Center of Public Electricity Company of Greece

Since 2003 she constantly exhibits her work at the "Aigokeros" gallery owned by Mrs. Preka, who participates in group exhibits of the greatest artists, and at UNESCO of which she is a member

Today, she works at the National Bank of Greece, at an administrative post. She also worked as an advisor of the Association of Scientific Personnel of the National Bank of Greece, the Bankers Trade Union, and the Workers Trade Center.

Mobile: 6938044423.